

Subscribe to Weekly Newsletter

GEORGETOWN ★ DC

EXPLORE

EVENTS
& NEWS

ABOUT

Business & Office
Directory

LATEST NEWS

DC Emancipation Event in Georgetown

GENERAL • APRIL 10, 2024

SHARE

Join the Black Georgetown Foundation on Saturday, April 13 from 11 am – 12:30 pm to observe DC's Emancipation Day. Meet at the Mount Zion and Female Union Band Society (FUBS) cemeteries (2501 Mill Rd NW) – the oldest Black cemeteries in DC that serve as the final resting place of enslaved, freed, and free Blacks – for a libation ceremony and reading of names accompanied by DC Strings. This will be followed by a conversation with Lisa Fager and Patrick Tisdale, caretakers who will share their knowledge of the ancestors of Mt Zion and FUBS. Feel free to bring a chair or blanket.

Black Georgetown Foundation >

RSVP for the Event >

Mt Zion - FUBS Cemetery >

African-American Heritage Trail >

< Back to News

The BIDness Newsletter

Get the weekly scoop on sales & events in Georgetown.

Your Email Address

Subscribe >

GEORGETOWN★DC

byGeorge Blog

Georgetown Business
Improvement District
1000 Potomac St. NW, Suite 122
Washington, DC 20007

202.298.9222
info@georgetowndc.com

Explore

Visit >

Parking & Getting Here >

Guides >

Business & Office Directory >

Events & News

Calendar >

Annual Events >

Latest News >

About

Georgetown DC FAQs >

The Neighborhood >

Our Community >

Press & Media >

Commercial Activity >

About Georgetown BID

About Us >

BID Programs & Publications >

BID Member Resources >

© 2025 Georgetown Business Improvement District