

: Voices of Zion: The Black Georgetown Cemeteries Project

Theatre: Alliance for New Music-Theatre

Performance Dates: April 16, 2022 - May 30, 2022

An immersive, original music-theatre work supported by crucial research, bringing new "life after death" to the complex, little known history of Black Georgetown. The stories of the residents of the adjacent Mt. Zion and Female Union Band Society cemeteries will showcase the obscured story of our city's history: urban slavery; African-American benevolent organizations and their lesser known role in DC's Underground Railroad; significant Black leaders including Charles Turner ("the Mayor of Black Georgetown"), and the complex relationships of Black and White inhabitants who lived, worked, and worshipped together.

Location:

- Female Union Band Society-Mt Zion Cemeteries Memorial Park 27th St. off Q St. NW
- Dumbarton United Methodist Church 3133 Dumbarton St. NW

Production Information

Show Type: Drama, Musical, World Premiere or New Work, Opera

Approximate Running Time: 120 minutes

Cast

PerformerRole

Ayana OgunsunladeHannah Pope

Roz WhiteMary Burrell

Djob LyonsAlfred Pope

Sheri JacksonMary Beckett

Dr. Lloyd MalloryCharles Turner

Cara SchaeferMary Billings

Creative Team

Playwright: Jarrod Lee

Director: Thomas W. Jones II

Costume Designer: Frankie Bethea

Choreographer for musicals: Thomas W. Jones II

Musical Director: Evelyn Simpson Curento

Composer: Ronald "Trey" Walton

Lyricist: Jarrod Lee

Lighting Designer: J. Paul Lewis

Do you see an error in the information displayed on this page? Click here to report it.